

Energy Leaders Consortium

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

An energy management best-practice network for energy professionals working at large-consuming organizations. By sharing knowledge and experiences, members help drive down energy costs by:

1. Learning from each other's energy projects
2. Sharing resources and expertise
3. Strategizing solutions to common challenges

RESULTS

Since inception, members implemented 454 projects that resulted in 212 eMWh and $30.4M in annual reductions

MEMBERS

“Sharing knowledge, experiences, and best practices with local industrial energy professionals has helped Pratt & Whitney Canada optimize our energy management strategies and confidently pursue energy projects we know will be successful.”

Scott Hendershot - Project Manager, Sustainable Development, Pratt & Whitney Canada
