Waste Audits & Waste Reduction Planning, PragmaTech Waste Solutions

Tammy Billings, PragmaTech Waste Solutions

Tammy began her career in the waste management industry in 1987.

Currently managing a strong team of environmental waste management professionals at PragmaTech that specialize in sustainable waste management consulting.

Tammy is a certified waste auditor (CWA) and has completed several waste management courses throughout her career.

The PragmaTech professional consulting team performs a wide array of services, including waste audits, packaging audits, remote monitoring for waste management programs, BOMA Best and 3R certifications for clients, RFP process management, and vendor management.

Tammy’s team also assists clients with creating waste management policies and best practices, stakeholder engagement, creating site-specific communication tools, and tender management for both haulage and equipment.
