

Reconciliation in Action Resource Guide (by Partners in Project Green)

This resource guide has been developed as a follow-up to our shared session Member 101: Reconciliation in Action. It is intended as a starting point, not a complete or exhaustive list, to support continued learning and reflection. We encourage you to explore these resources, share them within your organization, and keep building on this guide as you discover new tools and perspectives.

Readings, toolkits and guides:

- Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada: Calls to Action

This report includes 94 Calls to Action for Canadian industries, institutions and individuals to address the historic and ongoing injustices against Indigenous Peoples. Call to Action #92 specifically addresses actions for the corporate business sector.

- PPG's Learning Module: Understanding Our Connection to Water: An Anishinaabe Woman's Perspective

This module, developed by Cambium Ingenious Professional Services, shares an Anishinaabe woman's perspective on the significance that Water holds.

- Reconciliation Canada: Reconciliation Resources

A collection of resources featuring toolkits, book recommendations and videos

- Canadian Council for Indigenous Businesses: Business Reconciliation in Canada Guidebook

A starting place for building respectful and sustainable business partnerships – whether you're a large corporation, small business or startup.

Courses/Training

- Indigenous Canada, offered by the University of Alberta \(Free\)

Indigenous Canada is a 12-lesson Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) from the Faculty of Native Studies that explores the different histories and contemporary perspectives of Indigenous peoples living in Canada.

- Nisitohamowin eLearning course, offered by First Nations University of Canada \(free until September 2025\)

This is an introductory course to understanding Indigenous perspectives – the first step to advance Reconciliation, strengthen community partnerships and create sustainable economic opportunities.

- Connecting for Climate Action, offered by Western University \(Free\).

This 8-module course (spanning 12 weeks) featuring videos, readings, activities and interactives uses a storytelling approach to bring Western and Indigenous Sciences together to educate, encourage discussions and motivate action on climate change.

- 4 Seasons of Reconciliation, offered by Reconciliation Education

10-module course (with certificate) designed to meet the requirements of TRC #92 and helping your organization implement anti-racism culture & awareness. It highlights diverse, authentic Indigenous voices from Residential School Survivors, Community members, Elders, Youth, Leaders, Women, Educators, Artists from regions across Canada.

- Indigenous Corporate Training

ITC's mission is to guide, train, and support learners in Working Effectively with Indigenous Peoples®. They have a dedicated Indigenous Corporate Training team that to help you get beyond awareness in your work with Indigenous Peoples.